

Yea Hyung Shin

www.lifeisyea.com | yshin02@alumni.risd.edu | Skype: lifeisyea

I believe a passionate art educator can expand students' potential by directing them to recognize the reflection of themselves, and the world. Also, an art educator needs to allow students to experience that creating art requires courage, commitment, collaboration, and even frustration. However, with encouragements, students will identify their unique stories. They will mature as artists.

Education

Rhode Island School of Design (RISD)

Class of 2015, Providence, RI, USA

Bachelor of Fine Arts, Graphic Design

Dean's List

Certification

Visual Art Teaching Credential

K-12, Massachusetts, Preliminary

Languages

Korean

Native or Bilingual Proficiency

English

Full Professional Proficiency

Art & Design Skills

Digital

InDesign

Photoshop

Illustrator

Autodesk Maya

Unity

HTML&CSS

Fine Arts

Painting & Drawing

Book Binding

Monoprinting

Silkscreening

Textiles

Ceramic

Woodworking

Letterpress

Professional Development

Teaching with ATL in Mind, 2016

MYP Design Cat.1, 2016

MYP Arts Cat.2, 2017

Design, Do, Discover, 2017

Teaching ESL Students in a Main Stream Classroom, 2017

CI Intern Teacher Program, 2017

Teaching Experiences

Middle School Visual Art Intern, 2016 – Present

Chadwick International School, Incheon, South Korea

Designs and teaches MYP Visual Art (6-7). Curates students' art exhibitions twice a year. Monitors and communicates student progress through advisory for 6th grade. Supervises for MYP Personal Project. Runs art and design related clubs and service learning activities.

Teaching Intern, 2015 – 2016

Mission Hill K-8 School, Boston, MA, USA

Assisted art classes for a Boston Public Pilot School, grades K0-8. And ran Before and After School and Wellness program.

Kinder Art Teacher, Summer 2015

Nantucket Island School of Design and the Arts, MA, USA

Taught art to students from ages 5 to 8 with the theme 'Reach Around the World'. Assisted teaching students from ages 8 to 12 and designed NISDA's marketing materials.

Community Art Project, Fall 2014

RISD Teaching and Learning in Art and Design Course

Team taught as a student teacher at a nonprofit after school learning center, CityArts. Our class focused on different book binding methods, such

Professional Experiences

Freelance Graphic Designer, 2015 – Present

NoticeAbility, Boston, MA, USA

Design educational contents, brandings, and campaigns for a nonprofit that provides vocational subject matters that capitalize on the neurological strengths of students with dyslexia.

Graphic Design Intern, 2012–2013

Becky Lee Women's Support Fund, Washington D.C., USA

Designed and produced all marketing materials for print and web for Becky's Fund. Created branding materials for the non-profit's campaigns.

Freelance Graphic Designer, 2012–Present

Songdo Baptist Church, Incheon, South Korea

Created a logo for a newly established church. Applied logo design to multiple medium including, signs, blinds, website, and printed advertisements.